

Freedom, Sacrifice, Memory

February 1-28 the Lenoir Library will host the traveling photography exhibit, "Freedom, Sacrifice, Memory" which highlights photographs from the Civil War era. The exhibit features 24 images from the State Archives, NC Museum of History, and State Historic Sites and commemorates the 150th anniversary of the Civil War. More information can be found at www.nccivilwar150.com

Join us for these programs to learn more about the Civil War era in North Carolina!

Blind Date with a Book

Try reading something new! Feb. 1-28 you'll find wrapped books on display in each library. Checkout the book and take it home to read – you won't know what it is until you unwrap it! You might be surprised by a new author or genre you've never read before. If you don't like the book, just return it. Write a review to be entered into a prize drawing.

Coffee Talk Book Club

Our book club meets the 10am, on the 3rd Thursday each month at Java Joe's in Lenoir. Everyone's welcome!
